

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Heart and Voice;

A NEW COLLECTION OF

SUNDAY SCHOOL SONGS.

EDITED BY
W. F. SHERWIN.

DR. GEO. F. ROOT AND JAS. R. MURRAY,
SPECIAL CONTRIBUTORS.

CINCINNATI:
JOHN CHURCH & CO.

COPYRIGHT, 1881, BY JOHN CHURCH & CO.

TO THE CHOICE FEW WHO READ

"HEART AND VOICE IN THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL" is before you, and, if cordially invited, will sound its own praises. It is believed that the work will be found peculiarly rich in hymns and tunes which will stir the soul and kindle the fires of true devotion.

"HEART AND VOICE" contains not only new songs in great variety of style and sentiment, but also many choice selections from tried favorites which have proved most useful in the past.

The aim has been so to combine the useful with the attractive, as to meet, in the most practical way, the present needs of the Sunday-schools in every department of their work, rather than merely to make an ideal book for the critics; although it is hoped that this volume will meet their hearty approval.

Ample provision will be found for all SPECIAL OCCASIONS, such as New Year, Easter, Floral Sunday, Thanksgiving, Christmas and other Anniversaries, as well as for Prayer and Teachers' Meetings.

SUPERINTENDENTS will find the interest very greatly deepened if, on giving out a hymn, they will read the text of Scripture given under the title as indicating the root thought, frequently turning to the Bible and reading the whole verse or more.

It is hoped that this volume will prove so interesting and helpful in the song-service that, in hearty response to the call of the Psalmist, "young men and maidens, old men and children" shall feel a new fervency of zeal enkindled when they sing with heart and voice in the Sunday-school.

Singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.—Col. 3: 16.

W. F. S.

1. With heart and voice, in ho - ly ex - ul - ta - tion, Our sac - ri - fice of praise to God we bring;
2. To thee, O Christ, we grateful homage ren - der, With souls upborne on wings of sa - cred song;
3. O Ho - ly Spir - it, help our weak en - deav - or; In - spire our souls to wor - ship and re - joice;

And of - fer thus, in humble ad - o - ra - tion, Our thanks to him who gave us power to sing.
For thy great love to us, so kind and ten - der, Our no - blest, sweetest strains we would prolong.
To Fa - ther, Son and Thee, both now and ev - er, Be high - est praise from ev - ery heart and voice!

ITALIAN HYMN.

- 1 Come, thou almighty King,
Help us thy name to sing,
Help us to praise! -
Father all glorious,
O'er all victorious,
Come and reign over us,
Ancient of days.
- 2 Come, thou incarnate Word,
Gird on thy mighty sword;
Our prayer attend;
Come, and thy people bless;
Come, give thy word success;
Spirit of holiness,
On us descend.
- 3 Come, holy Comforter,
Thy sacred witness bear,
In this glad hour;
Thou, who almighty art,
Now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of power.
- 4 To thee, great One in Three,
The highest praises be,
Hence evermore;
Thy sovereign majesty
May we in glory see,
And to eternity
Love and adore.

Rev. Chas. Wesley.

DOXOLOGY.

To God, the Father, Son,
And Spirit, Three in One,
All praise be given;
Crown him in every song;
To him your hearts belong;
Let all his praise prolong
On earth, in heaven.

Rev. E. F. Hatfield.

SWEET HOUR.

- 1 Obeying thy divine behest,
We meet, O Christ, to speak of thee;
Thou art amongst us as a guest,
We feel it, though we can not see;
We seem to breathe, in glad surprise,
An atmosphere of love and bliss,
And read within each other's eyes,
To whom it is we owe all this.
- 2 How quickly every strife will end,
How soon all idle griefs depart,
When friend takes counsel thus with friend, [meets heart!
When soul meets soul, and heart
We have so many things to say,
So many failings to confess,
Time flies, alas! so soon away,
We can not half we would express.
- 3 O let us then, dear Lord, be blest
With thy sweet presence every day;
Be with us as our daily guest,
And our companion on the way.
Fan our devotion's feeble flame,
Let us press on to things before;
Bring us together in thy name,
Until we meet to part no more.

OLMUTZ.

- 1 Welcome, sweet day of rest
That saw the Lord arise;
Welcome to this reviving breast
And these rejoicing eyes.
- 2 The King himself comes near
And feasts his saints to-day;
Here we may sit, and see him here,
And love, and praise, and pray.

Isaac Watts.

LABAN.

- 1 Awake, and sing the song
Of Moses and the Lamb;
Wake, every heart and every tongue,
To praise the Saviour's name.
- 2 Sing of his dying love;
Sing of his rising power!
Sing, how he intercedes above,
For those whose sins he bore.
- 3 Sing, till we feel our hearts
Ascending with our tongues;
Sing, till the love of sin departs,
And grace inspires our songs.
- 4 Sing on your heavenly way—
Ye ransom'd sinners, sing!
Sing on, rejoicing every day,
In Christ, the exalted King.

Rev. Martin Madan.

CORONATION.

- 1 All hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem
And crown him Lord of all!
- 2 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall,
Go spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all!
- 3 Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all!
- 4 O that, with yonder sacred throng,
We at his feet may fall!
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown him Lord of all!

HURSLEY.

- 1 Sun of my soul, thou Saviour dear,
It is not night if thou art near;
Oh, may no earth-born cloud arise
To hide thee from thy servant's eyes.
- 2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
Forever on my Saviour's breast.
- 3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without thee I can not live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without thee I dare not die.
- 4 If some poor wand'ring child of thine
Have spurned to-day the voice divine—
Now, Lord, the gracious work begin;
Let him no more lie down in sin.
John Keble, 1827.

DENNIS.

- 1 Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.
- 2 Before our Father's throne,
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,—
Our comforts and our cares.

*We share our mutual woes:
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.*

Rev. John Flawcett.

WHAT A FRIEND.

- 1 Blessed Saviour, watch us, guard us,
As we leave our "Sabbath home;"
Guide and keep us from all danger,
Till again to thee we come.
Though we very often wander
Sorely tempted, prone to sin,
Yet we pray that thou wouldst hear us,
Cleanse and make us pure within.
- 2 Make each spirit meek and lowly,
Make us leave the ways of strife;
Lead us in the path of duty,
Lead us to the "better life."
Thus we'd serve thee, blessed Saviour,
Till we've crossed life's stormy sea,
And with each loved friend and teacher,
All are gathered home to thee.

PLEYEL'S HYMN.

- 1 One with Christ! O blessed thought!
We are by his Spirit taught;
On his fulness now we live,
Grace for grace we thence receive.
- 2 One with Christ! ye saints rejoice,
As the objects of his choice;
He will every want supply,
While he lives we can not die.
- 3 One with Christ! forever one,
Debts are paid and work is done;
Grace and glory both are given,
We are on our way to heaven.

Joseph Irons.

SHINING SHORE.

- 1 My days are gliding swiftly by,
And I, a pilgrim stranger,
Would not detain them as they fly,
Those hours of toil and danger.
For oh! we stand on Jordan's strand,
Our friends are passing over,
And just before the shining shore,
We may almost discover.
- 2 We'll gird our loins, my brethren
dear,
Our distant homes discerning;
Our absent Lord has left us word,
Let every lamp be burning.
For oh! we stand, etc.
- 3 Should coming days be cold and dark,
We need not cease our singing;
That perfect rest nought can molest,
Where golden harps are ringing.
For oh! we stand, etc.
Rev. David Nelson.

SICILY.

- 1 Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing,
Fill our hearts with joy and peace;
Let us each, thy love possessing,
Triumph in redeeming grace;
On refresh us,
Traveling through this wilderness.
- 2 Thanks we give, and adoration,
For thy gospel's joyful sound;
May the fruits of thy salvation
In our hearts and lives abound;
May thy presence
With us evermore be found.

J. R. M.

1. The morning light is surely growing brighter, The star of Bethlehem, how pure its gen-tle ray;
 2. Ho! every one that thirsteth, take the waters! Behold the precious bread of life for all that will;
 3. The time foretold is daily drawing nearer, When Christ will show us plainly of the Father's love;

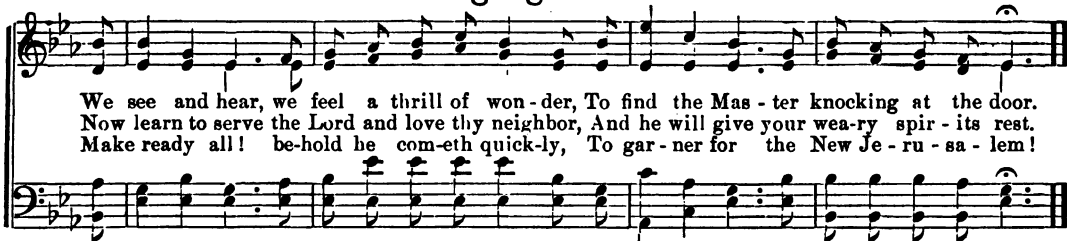

The gloomy sky is growing clearer, light-er, And soon will dawn the bless-ed, per-fect day.
 The Fount of Righteousness, O sons and daughters, Your longing, hun-gry, thirsting souls can fill.
 And saints his will, with vision growing clear-er, Shall do on earth as done in heaven a-bove.

At last the veil for us is rent a-sun-der, The Spir-it speaketh as it nev-er spake be-fore;
 Come un-to him, all ye that toil and labor, And ye who are with heavy loads of sin op-pressed;
 See now the waiting harvest standing thickly, And lo! the Master is the Prince of Beth-le-hem;

DENFIELD.

- 1 A Friend there is—your voices join
Ye saints, to praise his name!
Whose truth and kindness are di-
vine,
Whose love—a constant flame.
- 2 When most we need his helping hand,
This Friend is always near;
With heaven and earth at his command,
He waits to answer prayer.
- 3 And if our dearest comforts fall
Before his sovereign will,
He never takes away our all,
Himself he gives us still!

Joseph Swain.

WHAT A FRIEND.

- 1 What a Friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer!
O what peace we often forfeit,
O what needless pain we bear—
All because we do not carry
Everything to God in prayer.
- 2 Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged,
Take it to the Lord in prayer;
Who find a Friend so faithful,
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

NETTLETON.

- 1 Hail! my ever-blessed Jesus,
Only Thee I wish to sing!
To my soul Thy name is precious,
Thou my Prophet, Priest and King.
Oh, what mercy flows from heaven!
Oh, what joy and happiness!
Love I much? I've much forgiven;
I'm a miracle of grace.
- 2 Once with Adam's race in ruin
Unconcerned in sin I lay;
Swift destruction still pursuing,
Till my Saviour passed that way.
Witness, all ye hosts of heaven,
My Redeemer's tenderness;
Love I much? I've much forgiven;
I'm a miracle of grace.

John Wingrove.

HE LEADETH ME.

- 1 He leadeth me! Oh! blessed thought,
Oh! words with heavenly comfort fraught;
Whate'er I do, where'er I be,
Still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me!
- 2 Sometimes 'mid scenes of deepest gloom, [bloom,
Sometimes where Eden's bowers
By waters still, o'er troubled sea—
Still 'tis His hand that leadeth me!
- 3 Lord I would clasp Thy hand in mine,
Nor ever murmur nor repine—
Content, whatever lot I see,
Since 'tis my God that leadeth me.

Rev. J. H. Gilmore.

GREENVILLE.

- 1 Always with us, always with us—
Words of cheer and words of love;
Thus the risen Saviour whispers,
From his dwelling-place above;
With us when we toil in sadness,
Sowing much and reaping none,
Telling us that in the future
Golden harvests shall be won.
- 2 With us when the storm is sweeping
O'er our pathway dark and drear;
Waking hope within our bosoms,
Stilling every anxious fear.
With us in the lonely valley,
When we cross the chilling stream;
Lighting up the steps to glory
With salvation's radiant beam.

E. H. Nevins.

STOCKWELL.

- 1 Now the sowing and the weeping,
Working hard and waiting long;
Afterward, the golden reaping,
Harvest home and grateful song.
- 2 Now, the pruning, sharp, unsparing;
Scattered blossom, bleeding shoot!
Afterward, the piteous bearing
Of the Master's pleasant fruit.
- 3 Now, the long and toilsome duty
Stone by stone to carve and bring;
Afterward, the perfect beauty
Of the palace of the King!

That calls me from a world of care,
And bids me at my Father's throne,
Make all my wants and wishes known;

In seasons of distress and grief,
My soul has often found relief,
And oft escaped the tempter's snare,
By thy return, sweet hour of prayer.

2 Sweet hour of prayer, sweet hour of prayer!

RETREAT.

1 From every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat,
'Tis found beneath the mercy-seat.

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads;
A place than all beside more sweet,
It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.

Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
Though Sundered far, by faith they Around one common mercy-seat. Rev. H. Stowell.

MISSIONARY HYMN.

- 1 From Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Africa's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand—
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmey plain,
They call us to deliver
Their land from error's chain.

- 2 Shall we whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high—
Shall we, to men benighted,
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation—O salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's name.

Bishop Heber.

ARLINGTON.

- 1 How precious is the book divine,
By inspiration given;
Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine,
To guide our souls to heaven.

- 2 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts
In this dark vale of tears;
And life, and light, and joy imparts,
To calm our anxious fears.

- 3 This lamp through all the tedious night
Of life, shall guide our way,
Till we behold the clearer light
Of an eternal day

Arise with Joy and Sing.

Come to the Saviour To-day.

E. R. LATTA.

Behold, now is the day of salvation.—2 Cor. 6: 2.

C. C. CASE.

1. Come to the Sav-iour to - day! Trusting-ly, lov-ing - ly come; Turn to the Lord while you may,
 2. Come to the Sav-iour to - day! List to his dear, lov-ing call; He will not turn you a - way,
 3. Come to the Sav-iour to - day! Je - sus invites you to come; Do not a moment de - lay,

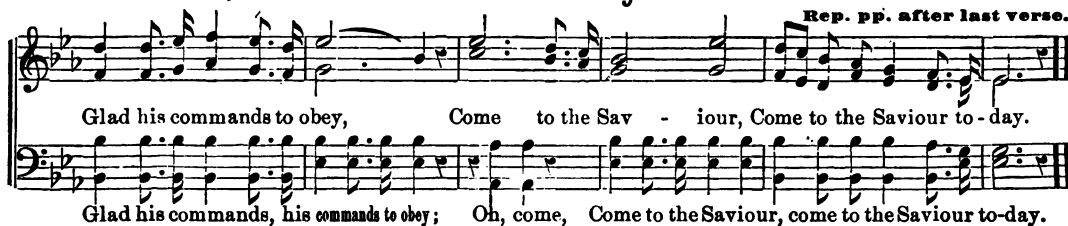

Do not in wick-ed-ness roam. Sa - tan will strive to en-tice you, Do not his promis - es heed;
 He will ac-cept of you all. Love him and faithfully serve him, As he has giv-en command,
 Look toward the heavenly home. Tread not in ways of tempta-tion, Leading to sor-row and sin,

CHORUS.
 If you are led to be-lieve him, You will be wretched indeed. Come to the Sav - iour,
 And he will take you to glo - ry, In his dear presence to stand.
 Walk in the way that is nar - row, Quickly the journey begin.

Come to the Saviour To-day. Concluded.

1 Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee;
Let the water and the blood,
From thy wounded side which flowed,
Be of sin the double cure—
Save from wrath, and make me pure.

2 Could my tears forever flow—
Could my zeal no languor know—
These for sin could not atone;
Thou must save and thou alone:
In my hand no price I bring;
Simply to thy cross I cling.
Rev. A. M. Toplady.

MARTYN.

1 Jesus, lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly,
While the nearer waters roll,
While the tempest still is high.
Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide,
Oh, receive my soul at last.

2 Other refuge have I none;
Hangs my helpless soul on thee;
Leave, oh, leave me not alone!
Still support and comfort me.
All my trust on thee is stayed;
All my help from thee I bring;
Cover my defenseless head
With the shadow of thy wing.
Rev. C. Wesley.

OLD, OLD STORY.

1 Tell me the old, old story
Of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and his glory,
Of Jesus and his love;
Tell me the story simply,
As to a little child,
For I am weak and weary,
And helpless and defiled.

CHORUS:

Tell me the old, old story,
Tell me the old, old story,
Tell me the old, old story,
Of Jesus and his love.

2 Tell me the same old story,
When you have cause to fear
That this world's empty glory
Is costing me too dear;
Yes, and when that world's glory
Is dawning on my soul,
Tell me the old, old story:
"Christ Jesus makes thee whole."
Kate Hankey.

I LOVE TO TELL THE STORY.

1 I love to tell the story
Of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and his glory,
Of Jesus and his love.
I love to tell the story,
Because I know 't is true;
It satisfies my longings,
As nothing else can do.

CHORUS:

I love to tell the story,
'Twill be my theme in glory,
To tell the old, old story,
Of Jesus and his love.

2 I love to tell the story;
For those who know it best
Seem hungering and thirsting
To hear it like the rest.
And when, in scenes of glory,
I sing the NEW, NEW SONG,
'Twill be the OLD, OLD STORY
That I have loved so long.

Kate Hankey.

MORE LOVE TO THEE.

1 More love to thee, O Christ,
More love to thee!
Hear thou the prayer I make
On bended knee;
This is my earnest plea:
More love, O Christ, to thee,
More love to thee!

2 Once earthly joy I craved,
Sought peace and rest;
Now thee alone I seek,
Give what is best:
This all my prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to thee,
More love to thee!

3 Let sorrow do its work,
Send grief and pain,
Sweet are thy messengers,
Sweet their refrain
When they can sing with me—
More love, O Christ, to thee,
More love to thee!

Even the winds and the sea obey him.—Matt. 8 : 27.

J. E. GOULD.

1. Je-sus, Saviour, pi-lot me O-ver life's tempestuous sea; Unknown waves before me roll,
 2. As a mother stills her child, Thou canst hush the ocean wild; Boisterous waves o-bey thy will
 3. When at last I near the shore, And the fearful breakers roar 'Twixt me and the peaceful rest, Hiding rock and treacherous shoal; Chart and compass came from thee; Jesus, Saviour, pilot me!

 When thou say'st to them "Be still." Wondrous Sovereign of the sea, Je-sus, Saviour, pi-lot me!
 Then, while leaning on thy breast, May I hear thee say to me, "Fear not, I will pi-lot thee!"

Have You Not a Word for Jesus? Concluded.

- 4 Yours may be the joy and honor his redeemed ones to bring,
 Jewels for the coronation of your coming Lord and King.
 Will you cast away the gladness thus your Master's joy to share,
 All because a word for Jesus seems too much for you to dare?
- 5 Yes, we have a word for Jesus! we will bravely speak for thee,
 And thy bold and faithful soldiers, Saviour, we would henceforth be.
 In thy name set up our banners, while thine own shall wave above,
 With thy crimson name of Mercy, and thy golden name of Love!

Giving thanks always for all things.—Eph. 5: 20.

W. F. S.

1. With glad-some hearts our praise we bring
 2. For all the sweet-ness of that grace
 3. We thank thee for this ho - ly day,
 To God who is the chil - dren's King,
 Which gives the lit - tle ones a place
 When we may read thy word and pray,

Who bends to list - en when they sing;
 Where they may see the Sav - iour's face;
 And learn to walk in wis - dom's way;
 For this we thank thee, Lord!
 For this we thank thee, Lord!
 For this we thank thee, Lord!

4 For all the love of dearest friends,
 For greater love that Jesus sends,
 Which o'er us like a rainbow bends:
 For this we thank thee, Lord!

4 Thy power in prayer we oft have felt,
 Thy sympathy most tender,
 And seemed to see, as we have knelt,
 Thy face in veiled splendor.
 For all these joys of Paradise,
 We bring our glad thanksgiving
 To thee, who every good supplies,
 To thee, the Ever-Living.

5 So may we join from year to year,
 Thy goodness ever singing,
 And, after faithful service, hear
 The bells of glory ringing.
 Then, safe with thee, again we'll raise
 Our voices in thanksgiving
 To thee, in more exalted praise,
 To thee, the Ever-Living.

PORTUGUESE HYMN.

1 How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord,
Is laid for your faith in his excellent
word:
What more can he say than to you he hath said,—
To you who for refuge to Jesus have fled!

2 "When through the deep waters I call thee to go,
The rivers of sorrow shall not overflow:
For I will be with thee thy trials to bless,
And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.

3 "When through fiery trials thy pathway shall lie,
My grace, all-sufficient, shall be thy supply,
The flame shall not hurt thee; I only design
Thy dross to consume, and thy gold to refine.

4 "E'en down to old age all my people shall prove
My sovereign, eternal, unchangeable
love;
And then, when gray hairs shall their temples adorn,
Like lambs they shall still in my bosom be borne.

5 "The soul that on Jesus hath leaned for repose,
I will not—I will not desert to his foes;
That soul—though all hell should endeavor to shake,
Jehovah will never—no never forsake."

Geo. Keith.

IVES.

1 Sleep not, soldier of the cross!
Foes are lurking all around;
Look not here to find repose:
This is but thy battle ground.
Up! and take thy shield and sword;
Up! it is the call of Heaven:
Shrink not faithless from thy Lord;
Nobly strive as he hath striven.

2 Break through all the force of ill;
Tread the might of passion down,
Struggling onward, onward still,
To the conqu'ring Saviour's crown!
Through the midst of toll and pain,
Let this thought ne'er leave thy breast,
Every triumph thou dost gain
Makes more sweet thy coming rest.

WEBB.

1 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high his royal banner,
It must not suffer loss:
From victory unto victory
His army shall be led,
Till every foe is vanquished,
And Christ is Lord indeed.

2 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
Stand in his strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you,
Ye dare not trust your own.
Put on the gospel armor,
And watching unto prayer,
Where duty calls, or danger,
Be never wanting there.

The musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with the lyrics written below the notes.

P. P. BLISS.

Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.—Mark 9: 24.

R. LOWRY, D. D.

1. My fears a - rise, and clouds obscure my way; With tear-ful eyes and ach-ing heart I pray:
2. By sin oppressed, to thy dear cross I flee; I smite my breast, be mer-ci-ful to me;
3. When Death shall come, O Saviour, come with him, And bear me home, where tears no eyes shall dim.

The musical score is in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat. It features three verses of lyrics corresponding to the three staves of music. The melody is gentle and reflective, with the lyrics written below the notes.

Sav-iour, re-lieve, thy presence brings re-lief; "Lord, I be-lieve; help thou mine un-be-lief."
Let me not grieve, thou canst dis-pel my grief; "Lord, I be-lieve; help thou mine un-be-lief."
In grace re-ceive the ser-vice here so brief; "Lord, I be-lieve; help thou mine un-be-lief."

This section continues the musical score for 'I Believe.' It includes three more staves of music with corresponding lyrics. The melody remains consistent with the previous section, maintaining a calm and reverent tone.

Feed My Lambs.

He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.—John. 21: 15.

Adapted and arr. for this work.

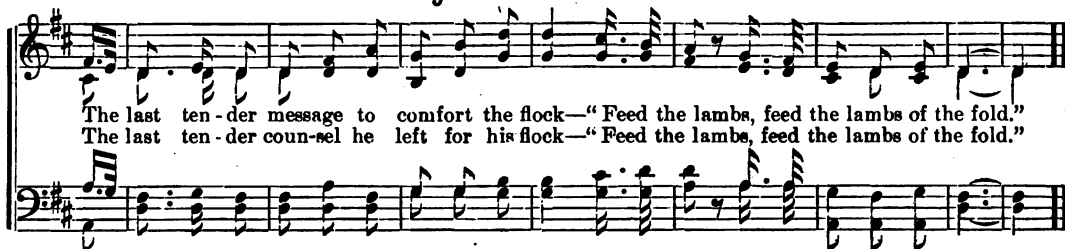

1. "Dost thou love me?" said Jesus to Si-mon that day, As he stood by blue Gal-i-lee's side;
2. In his thought he still bore on his bosom the lambs, As the lit-tle ones once in his arms

Them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.—1 Thess. 4: 14.

W. F. S.

With careful expression.

1. Lay the pre-cious body In the qui-et grave; 'Tis the Lord hath taken, 'Twas the Lord who gave;
2. Farewell, blessed body, Till the morn-a-rise; Welcome, happy spirit, In-to Par-a-dise.
3. Here the cas-ket li-eth, Waiting for re-pair; There doth Christ the jewel In his bosom wear.

Till the re-sur-rec-tion Lay the treas-ure by; It will then a-wak-en, And ascend on high.
No more work or weeping, Gone forev-er home; In Christ's holy keeping Rest un-till he come.

The Christmas Bells are Ringing. Concluded.

181

There's mu-sic in the air; The Christmas bells are ring-ing, Yes, ring-ing ev-'ry-where.

The musical score is written for two staves, treble and bass clef, in a key of one flat (B-flat). The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The music is in 4/4 time and ends with a double bar line.

Dear Children far Away. (Missionary.)

Such as sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death.—Ps. 107: 10.

J. R. M.

1. In lands full of darkness a-cross the blue wave, Are ma-ny dear children the Lord died to save;
2. No kind Christian parents to show them the way, To tell them of Je-sus, to teach them to pray;
3. No Bi-ble to brighten their pathway of gloom, No hope full of glo-ry be-yond the dark tomb;
4. No Je-sus, no Bi-ble—how sad is the sight, While here o'er our pathway the gospel shines bright;

The musical score is written for two staves, treble and bass clef, in a key of one flat (B-flat). The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The music is in 4/4 time and ends with a double bar line.

Who, reaching out hands from far over the sea, Are pleading for light shining on us so free.
To lead them in path-ways of wisdom and truth, And teach them the love of our God in their youth.
No promise of God the sad soul to sustain, No knowledge that death to the Christian is gain.
Lord, open our hearts to the poor children there, To give them the Bi-ble, our help, and our prayer.

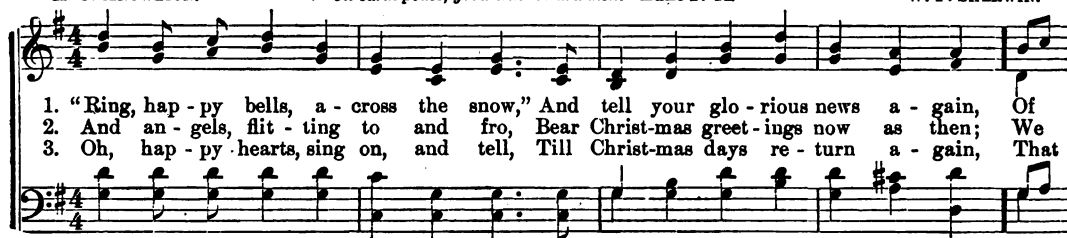

The musical score is written for two staves, treble and bass clef, in a key of one flat (B-flat). The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The music is in 4/4 time and ends with a double bar line.

A RESPONSIVE EXERCISE.

REV. W. F. CRAFTS.

W. F. SHERWIN, by per.

This may be rendered by choir or semi-chorus when so preferred, the school joining in the "Refrain." The readings may be given by teachers, classes, or selected individuals, and the verse of song should immediately follow the Scripture. Begin the service with two or three verses of "All hail the power of Jesus' name," by the whole congregation, followed by prayer.

NO. 1. Rather fast.
